Haiku Enters Bid For Pennant; Asahi Wins Easily From Sports Club

Asahi Saved From Season Shutout By Easy Victory Over Sports and Tie For Cellar Honors

Heavy hitting and running the paths like wildfire saved the Asahi's from being blanketed throughout the entire first season when Sunday they romped all over the Sports Club to the tune of 10-3.

Caswell was ineffective and was hit hard in the pinches. Masaichi burlled a good game and the Asahi infield gave him the best support shown by that team during the series. Iku opened the game with a double to short left but a wonderful catch of Yanagi's drive by Arthur Baldwin resulted in a double play that cut off any scoring.

Sports Lead Off

It looked like the same old story and the same old way when the Sports came to bat in the first stanza. Sequeira landed on Masaichi for a three bagger to left and scored when the Asahi shortstop held the ball a moment too long on the return. Ralph Baldwin was retired at first Cockett singled and Alo duplicated sending Cockett to third from where he tallied on Arthur Baldwin's sacrifice.

The Sports then gave the best exhibition of the season on how not to play ball.

Three passes to first and a wild throw tied the score in the second. Tsuda fled out to left. Then trouble began for Caswell. Hirai walked. Ishibashi was hit by Caswell and advanced Hirai to second. Masaichi walked and filled the satchels. Watanabe hit to Caswell and gave the Sports an opportunity for a double out. Baldwin caught Hirai at the plate but on the throw to first heaved the ball over the bag allowing Ishibashi and Masaichi to score.

After Caswell had whiffed two in order in the third Yanagi hit for the circuit and Asahi stepped into the lead.

From then on to the last half of the sixth frame a pitchers battle was staged, but in that inning Cockett singled and scored on an overthrow of first and again the score was tied.

Lucky Seventh

The lucky seventh won for the Japanese although they scored five runs in the two innings that followed. Iku led off with a single. Tomaoka laid down a sacrifice bunt advancing Iku to second from which station he pilfered third. Kitaoka popped to Sequeira. Yanagi walked and stole second. Tsuda came through with the needed hit and both runners scored.

In the eighth Watanabe walked, was advanced when Iku was safe on the shortstops error and scored on Tomaoka's single.

Ninth Inning Fatal

Any hopes the Sports might have harbored of winning out were killed outright in the last stanza. Four runs crossed the plate before Okamura's bunch was satisfied. Yanagi opened with a single. Caswell hit Tsuda and the bases filled when Hirai singled. Ishibashi laid down a bunt to Caswell who muffed it up and all hands were safe with Yanagi across. Then the mighty Masaichi tripled. Three runners scored but the pitcher trying to stretch his hit was caught at the plate.

Horse Racing To Be Revived Soon In San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1—(Associated Press Mail)—Horses will be running again, it is believed, within three months at Tanforan, the famous old San Francisco track which is being rebuilt by the Pacific Coast Jockey Club.

For weeks large gangs of men with horses and scrapers have been working on the track and recently a contract was let for the construction of a grandstand and stables. The stands will accommodate 10,000 spectators and there will be room in the stables for 388 horses.

Track authorities say that the Tanforan stables, eleven in all, will be the most modern to be found in the United States for the housing of thoroughbreds.

No date has yet been set for the first races but it is believed that the track will be ready for use in September and that it will be opened immediately.

Many California horses will be seen at Tanforan. A. B. Spreckels, one of the club directors, owns the Valley of the Moon ranch on which Morvich, a wonder horse of the year, was foaled.

Leonard Defends Title At Michigan City

(Associated Press)

MICHIGAN CITY, August 7—Benny Leonard defended his title of lightweight champion of the world for the third time within a month when he outpointed Ever Hammer in a 10 round no decision battle. Leonard fought cautiously and took no chances on reopening the cut over the eye which he received from Lew Tendler on the night of July 27 at Boyles Thirty Acres.

Leonard opened up after the seventh stanza and battered Hammer badly. The champion had eight of the 10 rounds by a comfortable margin and Hammer got a draw in the first and fourth.

NEW GOLF COURSE

OAKLAND, Cal., Aug. 1—(Associated Press)—Oakland's new municipal golf course will be opened January 1, 1923. It has been announced. The course could be opened sooner but it is desired to give the grass time to take root. The greens and fairways are progressing nicely.

Football Soon Ready To Appear Again On Pacific Coast

BERKELEY, Cal., Aug. 1—(Associated Press)—Football days will soon reappear on the University of California athletic calendar here. Coach Andy Smith having announced that aspirants for the varsity will start practicing about the middle of August.

Members of the varsity team, which has won the Pacific Coast Conference championship for two years, will not be allowed, under conference rules, to start team practice until September 15.

California expects a harder fight this year than it has had for the past two years during which its eleven moved down team after team and went through two seasons undefeated.

Although Coach Smith expects eighteen veterans back, he must practically rebuild his line, which from tackle to tackle, was lost through graduation. Smith's ends will be particularly well taken care of, "Brock" Muller, "Brodie" Stephens and Bob Berkey, all stars, being expected back.

Charles Erb, quarterback, will captain the team.
